Little Bird is a range of irresistible decorative figures designed by designer Jan Christian Delfs. The simple, but expressive, design represents a well-balanced mix of purity, abstraction, minimalism and, not least, cuteness.

The birds are turned in wood with the fine and characteristic beak as the sole detail. The design still appears alive and easily readable, “My eighteen month old son said “tweet tweet” when he saw the first prototypes. It was a good indication that the simple design hit the spot!”, explains Jan Christian Delfs.

Little Bird is created with inspiration from the designer’s own family. The six different sizes in the range each represent a particular character in the family. Tiny design related variations give the birds personality.

As a clear collector’s item, Little Bird is sold individually so the flock of birds can continuously grow. The birds are available in two variations: in colored lacquer, where each figure has been given its own color, and in pure oak or walnut for a more classic look.
